Find Out How We Can Help You

Did you know that currently, over 50% of the total mortgages that are written in the banking industry, are being written by a Mortgage Broker?

Finance & Mortgage brokers have become a competitive substitute for helping clients apply for finances, as opposed to going through a bank directly.

With access to over 100 different products, across 40 different lenders, Borrowers now have choice, and variety in the market.

What We Offer You

With many years of experience in the industry, our finance specialists are able to provide timely, and up to date advice, tailored to meet your individual needs.

FREE, NO OBLIGATION SERVICE

Our Finance Specialists at Brisbane Home Loans only need 15 minutes of your time, either over the phone or in person to get an understanding of what finance opportunities may be an available to you.

CHOICE, AND OPPORTUNITY

With access to over 100 different financial products across 40 different lenders, our Finance Specialists are able to provide you with choices, and opportunity specific to your individual needs.

GOOD OLD FASHIONED SERVICE

It is our aim at Brisbane Home Loans to put the customer first and bring back the 'Good Old Customer Service'. Our Finance Specialists aim to be available to their clients when needed during the application process, to ensure their clients have a smooth, stress-free experience.

QUICK APPROVAL

Once our Finance Specialists have the necessary documents, they will begin to lodge your application with the lender and follow through to settlement. The best part is, they make sure that you stay in the loop the whole way through.

ADVICE YOU CAN DEPEND ON

Our Finance Specialist are qualified individuals who devote their time to monitoring the ongoing changes in the financial and economic market. This adds value to what we offer our clients as our advice is accurate, and up to date, and we provide it in a timely matter.

A FINANCE PARTNER FOR LIFE

Once your loan is approved, Brisbane Home Loans continues to monitor your loan, to ensure you are staying competitive and up to date with market movements. You can rely on Brisbane Home Loans placing as much importance on your money, as we do ours.

All That, For Free! We Won't Charge You A Cent, As We Get Paid By The Lenders.

Our Core Values

Good Old Fashioned Services

Some things should never change irrespective of how much the world progresses. Good old fashioned service is about ensuring the client is always delighted with our performance. We want our clients to be more than happy, we want them to be advocates.

Trust & Integrity

We are completely open about our business and ensure that our clients are always aware of our reasons for selecting an offer and the relevant commissions that apply to us.

Our People

Our People are committed to client service. In addition to having the necessary expertise and access to competitive rates, they understand that the client must always come first in everything we do.

Availability & Accessibility

We pride ourselves in being accessible, flexible and contactable when the client needs us to be there.

Innovative Solutions

Personal and Business Lending continue to change, become more complex, legislated and more competitive. Finding the right option for each of our clients in the financial market needs an innovative approach to ensure that all possible options are considered.

Vision

We promise to work for you to ensure that your loans are constantly monitored and where necessary, action taken to ensure you always have the best deal in the market.

Privacy & Confidentiality

We provide our clients the upmost confidentiality in all the information provided. Our systems protect the access of information for our clients.

Operational Excellence

Communication is key in ensuring that narrow timelines are met when it comes to getting approvals and meeting contractual deadlines. We work with each of our clients to establish the best medium of communication suitable to the individual.
